The Masgutova Neurosensorimotor Reflex Integration - MNRI® Method

MNRI® Archetype Movement Integration Course in Stockholm, Sweden September 28-29-30/9, 2018

Isabelle Renard-Fontaine got her Master Degree in Physical Therapy and Rehabilitation at the Université Catholique de Louvain-La-Nueve (UCL), Belgium. In 1996, she passed the Physical Therapy US Board Exam and she has been living in Florida since, working mainly with children with a variety of diagnoses. She became a NICU (Neonatal Intensive Care) specialist in 2001, obtained her Neonatal Oral-Motor Assessment Scale (NOMAS) Certification in 2007 and opened a pediatric aquatic therapy program in 2001. She was introduced to the Masgutova Neurosensorimotor Reflex integration Method about 10 years ago, which brought a new dimension to her professional and personal life. She has completed hundreds of hours of MNRI classes and has been accruing close to one thousand of clinical hours of MNRI techniques working directly with dr. Masgutova and her international team. Isabelle's enthusiasm for teaching is obvious. In addition to the theory, and the hands-on lab for MNRI techniques training, she brings and shares many practical applications and pictures/videos of concrete clinical cases during her classes. She is a truly passionate and dedicated therapist, her therapeutic touch and love for her patients is inspiring.
